Dear Solomon,

Student ambassador for EQUIS re-accreditation

On behalf of the Business School I would like to thank you for fulfilling the role of a student ambassador for the School's EQUIS re-accreditation visit in December 2011.

EQUIS (European Quality Improvement System) is an international accreditation of Business Schools. Hull University Business School is part of an elite group of Business Schools who hold this accreditation along with the accreditations of AACSB (American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business) and AMBA (Association of MBAs). This triple crown of accreditations is held by only 1% of Business Schools worldwide.

Your involvement in our EQUIS re-accreditation process has seen your comments and thoughts on the Business School considered by a team of international reviewers made up of Deans from international business schools and a corporate representative.

Your contribution to the Business School has been invaluable and you have shown dedication and commitment to the School. I trust that the experience has been a beneficial one for you and that you have developed skills that will help you on your future career path.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Terry Williams
